SummerWorks Career Sneak Peek Speaker Series Invites Young Adults (16-24 Years Old) to Gain Insight from Career Professionals

WASHTENAW COUNTY, MI., July 22, 2021 – The SummerWorks Career Sneak Peek Speaker Series, slated for August 9 through August 13, will feature 20 speakers from Michigan-based organizations to share their career experiences with Southeast Michigan young adults.

The virtual sessions are free, and participants are welcome to attend multiple sessions of their choosing. Each talk will last approximately 1-hour and give insight into a variety of career trajectories among numerous industries.

"SummerWorks is an incredible program that has been connecting Washtenaw County young adults to internships and mentoring since 2016," said Amy Cell, President of Amy Cell Talent. "The expansion of the Career Sneak Peek Week can inspire thousands of young adults throughout Michigan to pursue career choices that are rewarding. This is a special opportunity for young adults to learn about exciting career opportunities and hear inspiring stories from these leaders that are giving their time and energy to inspire the next generation of Michigan's talent pool."

Career Sneak Peek Week is a great way to:

- Connect with employers
- Receive valuable advice
- Learn about career paths
- Ask questions to gain knowledge
- Understand the skills necessary for each career path
- Discover new organizations
- Exercise networking skills

To learn more about each speaker and to register for individual sessions, please visit <https://www.summerworks.info/career-sneak-peek>.
